

Privacy Policy

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 12, 2013

LOCIQ is committed to safeguarding your online privacy. The following statement sets our Privacy Policy. The LOCIQ.COM website will be referred to in this Privacy Policy as "LOCIQ".

Information Gathered From You

When you register for LOCIQ services we ask for personally identifiable information such as your name, email address and password in order to create a user account and get in touch with you when necessary. Your user account information will not be made publically available, nor sold to third parties. Paid services require financial information (such as your credit card details) and your address and phone number to process your order. Users who sign up for the free report are not required to enter credit card information.

Cookies

A cookie is a small amount of data, which often includes an anonymous unique identifier, which is sent to your browser from a web site's computers and stored on your computer's hard drive. LOCIQ uses cookies to better understand how people interact with our site and to improve the quality of our service. Some of our features and services may not display or function properly if your browser is set to refuse cookies.

Information Disclosure

LOCIQ may disclose user account information under special circumstances where we have reason to believe that disclosure is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be violating our Terms and Conditions or may be causing injury or interference with our rights, property, our customers or anyone who could be harmed by such activities.

We may also disclose personally identifiable information when we believe, in good faith, that we are required to do so in order to comply with any valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute, or court order and for administrative and other purposes necessary to maintain services and improve our products and services.

Security

Our site has security measures in place to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. To protect your information, we use SSL technology for all online credit card orders and all personal information is fully encrypted during all transactions. LOCIQ does not store your credit card details on our servers. We restrict access to your personally identifiable information to employees who need to know that information in order to operate, develop or improve our services.

All accounts require user name and password to log in. When you're finished using LOCIQ, please click the "Log Out" link, to prevent someone from using your computer to access your account.

E-Communication

When you sign up, you may receive an occasional email from us. You can opt-out from this email at any time.

Changes & Questions

This Privacy Policy may change from time to time and you should check the Site and re-read this policy periodically. If you have any questions about the LOCIQ Privacy policy, the practices of this site or your dealings with us, please email support@lociq.com.
